

THE SIGNAL

CHIEF'S MESSAGE

Our commitment to collaboration and mission readiness remains unwavering. DCSA's collaboration and partnerships with Small Businesses, Industry Professionals, Innovation Readiness Partners, and Security Practitioners reflects our belief that safeguarding the Nation's most sensitive assets requires every voice at the table. Together we prove readiness never stops and our collective commitment to mission success is never compromised.

Dr. Ruby Crenshaw-Lawrence
Chief, Office of Small Business Programs and Industry Engagements (OSBP&IE)
Defense Counterintelligence and Security Agency (DCSA)

Operating Status: Keeping Your Pulse on Progress

In every environment, one thing remains constant; the mission continues and preparation should never stop. The following tips will help you elevate your business's readiness and visibility.

Polish your Capability Statement – Make sure your one-page business snapshot clearly communicates your strengths, past performance and how your solutions support the mission of the Agency.

Check In with SBA.gov – Explore the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA)'s latest resources, certification guidance, and loan programs that can help you plan ahead and strengthen your business foundation. Click here to visit SBA.gov.

Explore USAspending.gov – Research who buys what and when. Tracking federal agency spending trends help you target future opportunities. Click here to visit USAspending.gov.

Connect with an APEX Accelerator – Utilize free guidance on government contracting, proposal reviews, and market readiness strategies. Click here to connect.

Organize and Optimize – Remember readiness never stops. Small actions today keep your business visible, credible, and competitive tomorrow.

Vendor Resilience & Communication Pathways

Your interest in helping DCSA address its capability gaps is greatly appreciated. Communication continuity is key to developing and maintaining resilient partnerships. The following resources will help you remain connected with DCSA OSBP&IE:

- Website: <https://www.dcsa.mil/osbpie>
- Email: DCSA.Small-Business@mail.mil
- Follow DCSA Announcements on SAM.gov

FY26 Procurement Forecast Now Available

DCSA's Fiscal Year 2026 Procurement Forecast is now available online. Click here to download it via OSBP&IE's webpage, and stay connected with us for future update alerts.

2025-2030 Strategic Plan

The DCSA 2025-2030 Strategic Plan, released in March of 2025, provides a framework for how DCSA will answer security challenges facing industry, the federal workforce, and the nation's critical information, technologies, and supply chains. It's a great resource to help you align your capabilities with DCSA's current and future strategic priorities.

Click here to access a PDF download of the Strategic Plan.

Keys to Marketing to DCSA

- Understand DCSA's mission and how we procure products and services.
- Respond to DCSA Requests for Information (RFIs) posted on SAM.gov.
- Specify how your products and/or services match the needs of DCSA's mission, environment, and challenges.
- Detail the relevance your past performance has with future DCSA requirements per the Procurement Forecast.
- Stay connected with the DCSA OSBP&IE team.

Veterans Day 2025: Honoring All Who Served

U.S. Navy photo by Drace Wilson

On November 11, our Nation honored the service of U.S. Armed Forces Veterans. OSBP&IE also salutes Veterans serving as business leaders within the U.S. Defense Industrial Base. The expertise, dedication, and innovation that they bring helps to fortify our national security.

Click here to access U.S. Small Business Administration resources for Veteran-owned businesses.

